All students and selected staff must be on organized group flight, or purchase their own airline tickets and travel on the same airline, days and flights. Exceptions can only be granted by the Team Leaders. We need a sufficient number of people on this pre-approved flight to carry clinical supplies.

Students must complete and turn in separate trip applications to both LLUSD Service Learning and this application to the FWH.

This trip is being organized through the LLU SIMS office, and they will purchase the air tickets for all going and returning on the group flights. A separate application for all such persons must be made to SIMS.

We will travel on Saturday, June 13, 2020, Alaska (flight 1240) or United (flight 426) from Los Angeles (LAX) to Puerto Vallarta (PVR). Both are non-stop flights and SIMS will determine which offers the lower cost. More information on this will be forthcoming as details are resolved.

We will return on Sunday, June 21, 20, Alaska (flight 1241) non-stop

- Departing Puerto Vallarta @ 4:50 pm and arriving Los Angeles International @ 5:55 pm.

Estimated Flight Cost $600. Final cost will be determined by SIMS and will be paid to them. Weight limit per bag, 50 lbs. Please make your reservations early if doing this separately.

Anyone traveling separately please provide your travel plans: _____

All trip participants will pay $900 to cover group ground transportation, hotel costs, and most meals in Puerto Vallarta. Send your check to:

FWWH, Attention: Dr. Hank Mercado
453 Cajon Street, Suite A
Redlands, CA 92373

After completing this application, scan this form and a copy of your passport picture page. Email both of them to Dr. Tom Rogers at trogers@llu.edu. If you intend to go on this trip, send an email asap to Dr. Rogers so your email address can be put on the distribution list to receive any current information.

Payment, application, & airline reservation must be completed & received by April 1, 2020
